

This Week at the Christian Community:
at our new space, Eno House
903 Eno Street Hillsborough, NC 27278

No new events until August 9

Dear Congregation and friends,
We are now on Summer Break. I hope you are able to rest and relax after a very full year of sacramental life! Looking back on the moments we shared together, perhaps you would like to reflect on what stays with you from our year.

Our first birthday with the candles in a cross, the Shepherds' Play, Christmas Eve in Mebane, our Valentines Event, Good Friday, Easter, Living Water Family Camp, our move to Eno House, all stand out as highlights for me. If you would like to write a paragraph or more about what you experienced this year in the Christian Community, and send it to me, I would gratefully receive it. Also please note whether or not you would be willing for your writing to be shared in this weekly update. You can send it to clairemjerram@gmail.com. I look forward to some opportunities in August and September for us to reflect and look forward in person.

The gospel readings continue. If you want to keep up with them on your own, they are as follows:

Sunday July 19: Matthew 11:2-15 Last St. John's reading

Sunday July 26 Summer Trinity begins: Mark 8:27-Mark 9:1

Sunday August 2 Matthew 7:1-29

Sunday Services will resume August 9 with a visit from Rev. Lisa Majoros, and I will return for August 16.

-Reverend Claire

Friday Service and Study will resume in September
